

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF OREGON

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

6:00-cr-60091-AA

v.

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO AMEND PREVIOUSLY-ENTERED JUDGMENT

MARTIN ANDREW SANGER,

Defendant.

This matter is before the Court on defendant's motion to vacate or correct his sentence pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Based on the Supreme Court's decisions in Johnson v. United States, 135 S. Ct. 2551 (2015), and Welch v. United States, 136 S. Ct. 1257 (2016), and the Ninth Circuit's decision in United States v. Cisneros, No. 13-30066, ____ F.3d ___, 2016 WL3435389 (9th Cir. June 22, 2016), and having considered the factors under 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a) and the interests of justice, the parties agree that the judgment in this case should be amended to:

- (1) delete references to the Armed Career Criminal Act and 18 U.S.C. § 924(e), and limit the description of defendant's conviction to felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g);
- (2) reduce the term of imprisonment from 180 months to 120 months;
- (3) reduce the term of supervised release from five years to three years; and

(4) add as a condition of supervised release that the defendant be placed in a residential reentry center for up to 120 days.

The parties further agree that all other aspects of the original judgment and commitment order, including the conditions of supervised release, should remain the same.

The parties believe defendant will be due for release upon entry of the amended judgment. To provide the Bureau of Prisons and the United States Probation Office sufficient time to arrange an appropriate re-entry plan, the parties stipulate that the amended judgment should not be effective until ten days after its entry, absent a minute order setting an earlier effective date, upon request of Chief United States Probation Officer John Bodden or his designee.

The defendant has consulted with counsel and agreed to waive his right to a re-sentencing hearing and allocution, and any right he may have to be present for the amendment of his sentence, and stipulates to the provisions above.

Based on the above, and the Court concurring,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that an amended judgment and commitment order shall be prepared and entered in accordance with the stipulation of the parties, deleting references to the Armed Career Criminal Act and 18 U.S.C. § 924(e), and limiting the description of defendant's conviction to felon in possession of a firearm under 18 U.S.C. § 922(g); deleting the previously-imposed term of 180 months' imprisonment, and replacing it with a sentence of 120 months' imprisonment; substituting a three-year term of supervised release for the five-year term previously imposed; and adding as a condition of supervised release that the defendant be placed in a residential reentry center for up to 120 days. All other aspects of the judgment and commitment order previously entered in this case, including the conditions of supervised release, shall remain in full force and effect.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the amended judgment shall not be effective until ten days from the date it is entered, absent a minute order setting an earlier effective date upon request of Chief United States Probation Officer John Bodden or his designee, in order to provide the Bureau of Prisons and the United States Probation Office sufficient time to arrange an appropriate re-entry plan.

Dated this 20 day of August, 2016.
